

Mentor growth becomes less about compliance and more about a deep understanding, knowledge, and application of the work of effective mentoring. It is about “ mentor fidelity” - a quality mentor is true to something higher, pure and noble.